PUB RALLIES FOR 'BRAVE AS A LION' MUM

Report by Danielle Thompson

A VILLAGE community has rallied around a 'brave as a lion' young mum from Skelmersdale who has been told she has just months to live.

Delilah May, 27, who has a three-year-old son, Jake, and works at The Ship Inn in Haskayne, has late stage bowel cancer.

Delilah, known as Dee, believed that she was suffering from irritable bowel syndrome when she started feeling unwell in March 2021. However, hospital tests revealed she had stage 4 cancer and she was told the devastating news in May that she is likely to have just 18 months to live.

Staff at The Ship Inn have rallied round Dee and have organised a fundraising event taking place on Saturday, June 25 which they have called 'Deeday at The Ship' to raise funds for her so she can share some special memories with Jake.

Ged Barton, the landlord of The Ship Inn said: "Our beautiful Delilah May is a valued and much-loved member of the Ship family and a devoted mother.

"Tragically, recently Delilah fell ill and was given the news no young woman should ever hear.

"She was diagnosed with stage 4 cancer. Delilah is as brave as a lion and is battling with all she has for the sake of her son. Continued on page 7

High Sheriff lights beacon to mark jubilee celebrations

A SPECIAL Jubilee Beacon was lit at Beacon Country Park to mark the Queen's 70 years on the throne - just one of the many Jubilee events that took place in West Lancashire.

Celebrations began on Thursday with a family event in Coronation Park in Ormskirk where Skelmersdale Prize Band played the national anthem on the bandstand beautifully decorated by The Sewing Rooms. Street entertainers, the Acro Chaps, helped the afternoon go with a swing and dance troupes got everyone's toes tapping with their great routines. Schoolchildren showed off the crowns they had been creating for the Jubilee in a parade.

The fun continued the following day at Skelmersdale amphitheatre with an entertaining afternoon supported by the Friends of Tawd Valley Park and live music organised by the Engine Rooms.

Football tournaments and turf sledging were among some of the top activities for the children to enjoy and Skelmersdale Heritage Society showcased photos of the area from times gone by.

On Thursday, June 2, from 9.30pm lights were lit in the Queen's honour across Britain and the Commonwealth and a large crowd gathered at Beacon Country Park to watch West Lancs play its part. The High Sheriff of Lancashire, Martin Ainscough DL, lit the beacon.

The Queen symbolically led the lighting of the principal Jubilee beacon in the Capital as part of a chain of more than 3,500 flaming tributes.

Cllr Marilyn Westley, Mayor of West Lancashire who officially opened both park events and was one of the guests at the lighting of the beacon, said: "It was great to see so many people out enjoying the wonderful celebrations.

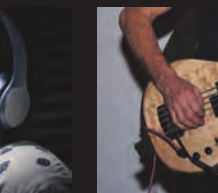

"I hope the festivities will have helped create some wonderful memories of this historic occasion."

Children's diabetes doctor and autism campaigner for young people awarded OBE

by Tom Martin

A CHILDREN'S diabetes doctor and autism campaigner who is based in Southport and Ormskirk Hospital NHS Trust has been awarded an OBE.

Professor May Ng was awarded the honour in the Queen's Birthday Honours List on Thursday, June 2 for her commitments to improving the care of young people with diabetes and young people with autism.

The award-winning paediatrician, based at Ormskirk Hospital, has made a huge difference to individuals, families and communities through her work improving and delivering patient-centred diabetes care, raising awareness of autism and developing online e-learning education for healthcare professionals in the UK and internationally.

May joined Southport and Ormskirk Hospital NHS Trust in 2009 as Consultant Paediatrician and Paediatric Endocrinologist where she is also now Associate Medical Director for Specialist

Professor May Ng

Services. She said: "I am surprised and deeply humbled to be honoured by this award. I wish to express my immense gratitude for the support from my family, my parents, my team, colleagues, and the children and families I work with."

"Throughout my career, I have always been driven by a passion to improve the care of people living with diabetes and other endocrine conditions, and to advocate for autistic people due to my own personal experiences."

"This award reflects the dedication of so many people, and my greatest hope is that the recognition afforded by the OBE focuses attention on the continued efforts to improve diabetes care and raise autism awareness globally."

Ann Marr, Chief Executive of Southport and Ormskirk Hospital NHS Trust, said: "This is a well-deserved and wonderful honour for May. She is renowned for her dedication and commitment to the very best in diabetes medicine."

"It is an award that will come as no surprise to the thousands of parents whose children have benefitted from her expert care."

Born in Malaysia as an ethnic minority Chinese, May has written more than 150 publications and authored three books "Me and My Hormones - What can go wrong" and "A Journey with Brendan" which details the personal struggles she faced raising her autistic son.

Her latest book - "A Guide To Type 1 Diabetes Management, Technology and Everything Else You Need To Know" is out this summer.

Man arrested after video posted on instagram showed car being driven at 150mph on motorway

The car was shown on social media being driven at 150mph on the M58.

Footage showed vehicle racing with other drivers at speed

A MAN has been arrested on suspicion of dangerous driving after a video was posted on Instagram of a car being driven at 150mph on the M58.

The footage, on Instagram Live, shows a Volkswagen Golf R being raced against other drivers, undertaking and reaching high speeds.

It was picked up by officers from Merseyside Police who passed the footage over to Lancashire Police.

A 20 year old from Parbold was arrested on May 31 and has since been released under investigation.

A car has also been seized.

A spokesperson for Lancashire Police said: "We take reports like this seriously and anyone found to have put others in danger on the road will be dealt with accordingly."

Project to tell stories of people's lives over period of Queen's reign

A SOCIAL enterprise in Skelmersdale has been awarded a £45,000 grant by The National Lottery Heritage Fund to capture the stories and changes to peoples' lives in the town, throughout the Queen's reign.

Connector Media CIC is to make a multi media production called 'Our Lives Through Queen Elizabeth II Reign' which will bring together different generations to share their experiences of life over the past 70 years.

The project will capture peoples' stories through film, audio and a booklet. In addition, a dedicated website will be created to showcase interviews and stories.

The project will culminate in an event to launch the film and booklet made up of the stories collected.

Skelmersdale New Town was conceived around the time the Queen came to the throne, and through these past 70 years has grown from a small mining and agricultural village to a modern new town.

It is now a melting pot of culture and diversity, thanks to the many families it has welcomed from surrounding cities, such as Liverpool and Manchester.

Paula Gamester CEO of award-winning Connector Media CIC, said: "This project is social history in the making."

"We are absolutely delighted to have been awarded these funds from The National Lottery Heritage Fund, and it's thanks to National Lottery players that we can make this happen."

Co-director Maureen Fazal, added: "This is a truly intergenerational project. We will be engaging with young people and training them to interview older members of our community to capture their stories in a new and inclusive way."

Fundraising group raises £13,000 to train guide dog

FUNDRAISERS in Ormskirk have won recognition for raising £13,000 – enough to fund a guide dog into a partnership with someone with sight loss.

Thanks to the hard-working volunteers, guide dog Forest is now fully funded to support someone with sight loss for his working dog career.

It costs around £55,000 to breed, train and support a guide dog throughout their life. The charity Guide Dogs continues to support the dogs during their time working as a guide, so the £13,000 figure covers the cost of food, vets' bills and ongoing training after the dog is partnered with someone with sight loss.

Newly qualified guide dog Forest

The Ormskirk fundraising group, made up entirely of volunteers, raised the sum through local activities like collections and sponsored events.

Lynne Whittaker of Guide Dogs, said: "This amazing group of volunteers have done incredibly well to raise this sum, which will make a real difference for the people we support."

School steps back in time to celebrate Jubilee in style

PUPILS at Ormskirk West End Primary School celebrated The Queen's Platinum Jubilee on the last day of term, crowning The Queen of Ormskirk West End and holding a Celebration Performance and Picnic to which all children and their families were invited.

Laura-Jean Horton, Year 6 teacher, said of the event: "Our Platinum Jubilee Celebration brought family and friends together in such a glorious way."

"By holding our own Coronation - with music and songs performed by the children - we were able to deepen our understanding of the Queen's life and legacy, strengthen our appreciation of British Values, and celebrate our children's achievements this term."

"We could not be prouder of our children as they ensured our event was a roaring royal success!"

Year 2 pupil, Gloria Walker, was selected to undertake the role of Ormskirk West End's Queen and she was crowned in front of the whole school community - her peers and their families - by Rev. Stuart Haynes from Ormskirk Parish Church.

Gloria said of the experience: "I am very proud to be Ormskirk West End's Queen. It was a very exciting and fun day - definitely a day I'll remember forever!"

Further adding to the celebratory atmosphere, children, families, and staff dressed in 1950s costume, acknowledging the decade in which The Queen was crowned.

Deeday at The Ship!

"So on Saturday, June 25 we will be having a fundraising day at The Ship reflecting Dee's love of music with live entertainment starting at 3pm and a disco all day/night, raffles, a 'Play Your Cards Right' game, hot food and more going on to raise as much money as we can to help our beloved Dee."

"Musicians already supporting and confirmed are Scallywag, Nid Kammance, and Heart and Soul with more yet to be announced and it will be compered by Stevie Gee."

Tickets for the event are £10 and organisers say "every penny raised will go directly to Delilah and her boy to help them to make some precious memories."

One of the raffle prizes is a signed Liverpool FC shirt. Tickets are available on a first-come, first-served basis now, by buying them in cash at the bar.

They are using the hashtag #DeedayatTheShip on social media.

Rainbow Hub enjoy £4,500 cash boost

RAINBOW Hub in Mawdesley has been given a £4,500 donation by a company which has been fundraising over the past 15 months.

Josh Norgate, who runs Access4Lofts, which covers West Lancashire, Liverpool North, Wirral, Bolton, Blackpool and Lancaster, initially donated £250 and then went on to make the Mawdesley based charity supporting children with physical and neurological disabilities, their Charity of the Year 2021/22.

Josh Norgate and Josh Brierley at the Rainbow Hub

He and another company director, Josh Brierley, visited Rainbow Hub recently with a cheque for £1,300 which was raised by donating £2 from every job their company completed in 2021.

But their support didn't end there and he and some of his team also took on the Sky Dive Challenge raising £2,060 personally and more than £3,000 from Access4Lofts collectively.

Josh said: "We are supporting Rainbow Hub because they do so much for disabled children and their families but have to raise all their own funds. It is a privilege to be able to help them in any way that we can."

Lyndsay Fahey, CEO, Rainbow Hub, said she was "so grateful" for the support.

Domestic abuse services unite to support victims

Report by Henry James

AN event to showcase the domestic abuse services commissioned by Lancashire County Council has been held.

The Partnership Launch and Celebration Event, held at the Gujarat Centre in Preston, brought local organisations together to promote the new services.

They have been introduced to ensure that residents of Lancashire have access to a comprehensive range of services that can support individuals and families experiencing domestic abuse.

These services include providing different types of safe accommodation, including sanctuary schemes, which allow survivors to continue to live safely in their own home. The county council is also continuing its funding for refuges, which support people in crisis situations.

The event was opened by County Councillor Peter Buckley, cabinet member for community and cultural services.

County Councillor Buckley said: "The county council has commissioned these new services, investing more than £4m as part of its statutory duties under the domestic abuse act."

"The services complement existing support, such as refuges, which are still hugely important, but we can now offer more targeted support at an early stage to help stop abuse from escalating."

"The event is part of our plans to work together to ensure we can make the best use of these new services to protect vulnerable people across our county."

Boxing’s return show to town is a big hit

Club delighted at ‘fantastic’ turnout

Report by Henry James

THERE was a fantastic turnout to watch the return of amateur boxing to Skelmersdale. The event was organised by Birch Green Amateur Boxing Club and was held at Upholland Labour Club. It was the boxing club’s first show in six years due to a fire which damaged its gym and then the pandemic.

Colin Day from the club said: “Our staff were very nervous on how the show would go and if people would show up to watch but the turnout was fantastic. “From the moment we opened the doors we knew amateur boxing was back in Skelmersdale. “Without the people of Skelmersdale and our sponsors we would never have been able to have put our show together. “A special mention goes to the Upholland Labour Club who let us use their fantastic venue. We also want to thank Jonny Tang Photography who took the photos. “We did intend to have 15 contests on during the evening including 10 of Birch Green boxers but due to late pull outs we only ended up with 10 contests and only four of our own boxers. “This didn’t deter the crowd in the slightest who supported every boxer that had travelled to box on our show and the sportsmanship shown from our crowd was tremendous.” The results from the Birch Green boxers on the night were Luke Deegan who boxed an opponent from the famous Everton Red Triangle club in Liverpool and put on a great show, Michael Henders who fought an opponent taller than him from Runcorn ABC and won on a split decision to earn him the best Birch Green boxer of the evening accolade, Ross Gregory who boxed an opponent from MollyMcStien ABC who preformed well, and Jacob Dugdale who boxed well but lost to an opponent from West Wirral CP ABC on a split decision.

Police officers who ran into burning building to rescue man up for top award

TWO ‘selfless’ officers who saved a man’s life by running into a burning building have been nominated for a national bravery award. PCs Simon Wheeler and Paul Rogers-Thomas saved the man in Skelmersdale in the early hours of April 4, 2021.

Officers had received information the man was inside the ground flat with smoke seen coming from the property. Given the danger and ignoring their own safety, PCWheeler took off his body armour and forced his way inside through a small window. PCWheeler found a chip pan well alight on a lit stove.

He removed the pan, putting the fire out and turning off the cooker. He then opened the front door and having taken a breath, re-entered the address with PC Rogers-Thomasto search for the man.

He was found asleep in the living room and the officers pulled him to safety

Lancashire Police Federation chair Rachel Hanley said their actions were ‘brave and selfless.’

She said: “Once again this incident shows how police officers are much more than crime fighters. We are lifesavers.

“The brave and selfless actions of these quick-thinking officers undoubtedly saved the life of the householder and prevented a potentially catastrophic outcome for the other residents in the block of flats.

“I thank Paul and Simon for their actions in going above and beyond the call of duty. They are very worthy nominees.”

The officers will attend the National Police Bravery Awards ceremony in London in July.

Man who retrieved bike after it was thrown into canal by jobs wants to find its owner

A KIND-HEARTED onlooker who saw thieves throw an expensive bike in the canal in Burscough at the weekend went back the following morning and rescued it from the water.

The local businessman, who doesn’t want to be named, was having a drink with friends at the Thirsty Duck at Burscough Wharf at around 8pm on Sunday, June 5 when he saw two youths dressed in black sportswear riding around the car park across the road on a costly bike.

He was shocked when he saw then push it into the canal and run off.

The following day he fished the bike out of the canal and cleaned it off – and now, he wants to find the bike’s rightful owner.

He said: “I think it’s a teenager’s bike so someone may be upset and missing it.

“I’d love to get it back to the rightful owner.”

If you recognise the bike and want it back, send an image of the bike from when you owned it or proof of purchase to d.thompson@champnews.com and we will forward your details to the bike’s rescuer.

Robert has now raised £4,000 for Clatterbridge

EVERY year for the last eight years Robert Sumner has organised a raffle on behalf of the Clatterbridge Cancer Centre in the Heaton’s Bridge pub in Scarisbrick - and this year has been a particularly memorable one, as he is donating £521 to the good cause.

With the help of landlord Steve Winrow, Robert, pictured, he thanked customers of the canal-side pub, who again bought tickets in large numbers and he gave an ‘especially big thanks’ to those that donated prizes for the annual fundraiser.

Robert has now been able to donate more than £4,000 to the cancer centre via his yearly efforts.

Free health assessments offer for patients who are overdue a GP visit

Report by Henry James

PEOPLE who may be overdue a health check are being offered the opportunity to have a free assessment at two community venues in Skelmersdale tomorrow (Thursday, June 9).

NHS West Lancashire Clinical Commissioning Group and West Lancashire Borough Council are working with partners to deliver the checks.

During the pandemic, many people reported they were worried about going to their GP for regular health assessments because they didn't want to add to the pressure the NHS was under or were afraid of the risk of infection.

Height, weight and blood pressure measurements will be included, and Covid-19 vaccinations will be available for those who need a first, second, booster or spring booster.

Dr Ros Bonsor

The checks will be available to residents of West Lancashire aged 18 and above on Thursday, June 9 at Tanhouse Community Centre, Ennerdale, from 10am-1pm.

There will be more checks on the same day at the Ecumenical Centre, Northway, from 3-6pm.

Dr Ros Bonsor, a GP at Beacon Primary Care in Skelmersdale, said: "We have residents who have been reluctant to have a health assessment during the Covid-19 pandemic and we are keen to ensure those people can be seen."

"We will check on basic health such as blood pressure and other things just to give the residents peace of mind.

"The team are able to offer advice and guidance on health and wellbeing, and can support residents to access the most appropriate services for them, which could be a referral to their GP if necessary."

West Lancashire Childminders celebrated the Queen's Platinum Jubilee with a red, white and blue party

Jubilee joy!

by Danielle Thompson

WEST Lancashire's streets, parks and community venues were turned red, white and blue as thousands of residents across the borough celebrated the Queen's Platinum Jubilee.

Locals made the most of the four-day celebrations with street parties and other community gatherings to mark 70 years of the Queen being on the throne. Although the weather was a mixed bag, it was a sunny Saturday and this was when many of the parties got into full swing.

Ahead of the celebrations, Lancashire Police's chief constable Chris Rowley planted a commemorative tree on June 1 at Lancashire Police Headquarters to mark the Queen's incredible 70 years on the throne.

A spokesperson for the force said: "By planting the tree, the Constabulary has participated in the Queen's Green Canopy initiative; a unique tree planting scheme which has invited people in the UK to plant a tree to mark this special occasion."

"He was joined by officers and staff as he planted the flowering cherry tree to honour Her Majesty's reign as the longest the UK has seen."

Meanwhile, Lancashire's Mounted Police division revealed on June 2 that the newest member of their team has been named Sovereign - in honour of Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth and to commemorate the Platinum Jubilee.

More than 150 guests attended the 'Queen's Platinum Afternoon Tea Party' at Parbold Village Hall on Sunday, June 5.

One of the organisers Bev Hayman said: "Parbold Parish council funded the event which was organised by myself and Sue Halton. Thank you to everyone who helped to make this event a great success and reunite the community spirit back into the village after the difficult two years of Covid.

"Thank you also to the local businesses for the donation of raffle prizes. Everyone had a fun afternoon making memories which will stay with them for years to come and we loved being able to spend time together enjoying afternoon tea served in Union Jack boxes, followed by trifle and a cup of tea!"

West Lancashire Childminders celebrated the Queen's Platinum Jubilee with a red, white and blue party. The children enjoyed sandwiches and strawberries and royal party games and the children gave three cheers for the Queen! The childminders provide 'home from home' care where children get the opportunity to get out and about in the local community.

Residents at Elmers Green, Skelmersdale, enjoyed a Jubilee party. Resident Kevin O'Sullivan, said: "The event got underway after we had the Jubilee message from the Queen read out by our local resident town crier (left). It was a fantastic day for all the residents including the children as a bouncy castle was hired too."

Guests and residents at Fenney Court, Eskdale enjoyed a jubilee party on Sunday, June 5. Sylvia Green, said: "There was lots of fun, food, laughs, dancing and enjoyment with the residents. Thank you to Lesley McBride, the manageress and resident Joan Walker."

Historic convent to get new lease of life after takeover

By Danielle Thompson

A VICTORIAN villa in Parbold, which was used as a convent for more than 70 years, has been snapped up by a developer.

PJ Livesey has acquired Lancaster House on its 6.5acre site from the charity, The Sisters of Notre Dame de Namur UK and options for its future include converting the main building back into a private residence, as well as adding new-build units.

Lancaster House was built in 1845 and has been home to the Sisters of Notre Dame Namur since 1947.

PJ Livesey, which states that it has built its reputation "through the painstaking renovation of some of the finest period properties in the country" are currently in the process of creating a planning application which will be submitted to West Lancashire Council this summer.

There were reports last year that the building would be turned into a 70-unit care village after it was first placed on the market.

The building was first erected as a private residence in the 18th century and later bought and extended by the charity.

It was used as a convent between 1947 and 2020.

Between 1929 and 1947, the former home of Hugh Ainscough and his family was rented to the Sisters of Notre Dame, of Everton Valley, Liverpool, who used it for short term and summer holidays.

Lancaster House. Photograph via Law of the Few

Records state that the first Mass to be offered there was on March 6, 1930..

The property was purchased by the congregation of Notre Dame on October 13, 1947, and since 1965 has been used as a Pastoral Centre. It currently holds the Offices of the Provincialate Team for the Notre Dame Sisters.

The property was extended in the mid-1980s to provide a nursing wing.

The property is surplus to requirements, with existing sisters to be looked after within other convents operated by Sisters of Notre Dame Namur.

Eye service given top rating

THE Care Quality Commission (CQC) has rated a Skelmersdale eye patient service outstanding following a recent inspection.

'Books bins' at leisure centres to help children

Report by Henry James

SPORTS centres in West Lancashire that are run by More Leisure Community Leisure Trust have 'book bins' to help underprivileged children across the UK have better access to books.

The company has announced a partnership with national charity the Children's Book Project, which will see books collected via the trust's facilities sent to youngsters up until June 10.

The Children's Book Project is looking to tackle 'book poverty', giving every child the opportunity to own a book.

The trust team are asking local people with good quality children's books to drop them off in the charity book bins, which can now be found at Beacon Park Golf Centre, Park Pool, Nye Bevan Pool and Burscough Racquet & Fitness Centre.

Mark Snaylam, contract manager for the trust said: "We're delighted to link up with the Children's Book Project, helping them with their important work of providing books to children who may be currently missing out on this crucial element of a young person's educational development."

"We will be hosting the book bins until June 10, so if you're someone with unwanted, but good quality, children's books in your home, please pop along to one of our centres and give the gift of reading."

Kirstin Knell from the Children's Book Project said: "We are over the moon to be supported by More Community Leisure Trust, whose centres provide such an important way for the local community to get together."

"Every book donated by families will be gifted on by our volunteers to children with few of their own."

"We're so looking forward to seeing the results of everyone's spring sort-out of their bookshelves and sharing the very real impact that these books have had."

It's time to move on.

Survey on council services opens for residents

THE borough council has now opened the Citizen & Stakeholder 2022 Survey with residents, groups, organisations, parish councils, partners, and businesses across the borough all invited to share their views.

The survey consists of several core questions designed to measure customer satisfaction and gives the council's customers and communities the opportunity to have their say on key issues. This includes services the council deliver and how the council runs things and if they provide value for money.

Measuring resident satisfaction helps the council to understand how effectively they are serving residents and local communities.

Leader of West Lancashire Borough Council, Yvonne Gagen (pictured right), said: "This is everyone's chance to speak directly to us and to let us know what their priorities are when it comes to how we operate as a council and where our resources should go."

The Citizen Survey has been posted to a random sample of residents, which will be representative of the borough by ward, to ensure there is an equal opportunity for residents across the borough to respond.

Residents and groups who have not received a survey by post are also encouraged to have their views heard by visiting the resident feedback hub by using this link: letstalkwestlancashire.uk.engagementhq.com

The survey will be open until July 8.

If people would like to receive a large print copy, they should call NWA director Norma Wilburn on 07811 101585 or call 0800 316 3630 or email norma.wilburn@nwaresearch.co.uk.

Coup for resort as Black Eagles display team to appear at Southport Air Show

SOUTHPORT Air Show will play host to the first UK appearance by the renowned South Korean Air Force display team in more than 10 years.

The Asian nation's Black Eagles aerobatic flight team will be jetting into the resort for the Air Show on Saturday, July 9 and Sunday, July 10.

News of the Black Eagles' visit to Southport has already garnered headlines across the aviation world for this one-of-a-kind display which will see eight KAI T-50B planes, specially-painted in their trademark black, white, and yellow, take part in a series of stunning aerial manoeuvres.

The eight Black Eagle pilots will be thrust to the back of seats, experiencing G-force nine times greater than Earth's gravity in their supersonic jets. Famed for their pinpoint accuracy and sophisticated flying displays, the team's supersonic trainer aircraft are being brought to the UK for just three shows this year.

Cllr Marion Atkinson, Sefton Council's Cabinet Member for Regeneration and Skills, welcomed the news, saying: "To have Southport Air Show as the first stop on a 2022 UK tour of the South Korean Air Force is an incredible feat and goes to show how huge our event is in the calendar.

"The Black Eagles display is one that cannot be missed and will compliment a fantastic roster of displays already announced including the return of our very own Red Arrows, the RAF Typhoon and the emotive Battle of Britain Memorial Flight display."

Tickets for general admission to the Southport Air Show are £10 and for the first time under-16s are free. Visitors can also purchase exclusive tickets to watch the show from the Pier. These tickets are subject to limited availability.

For more information visit www.southportairshow.com or call the ticket hotline 03445611816.

Morris scored the goal that put Skelmersdale in the play-offs. Picture by Gordon Johnson

Skem's Morris named league's Player of the Year

SKELMERSDALE United youngster Elliott Morris has been named the North West Counties League Premier Division Player of the Year, writes Neil Leatherbarrow.

Morris played a crucial part in Skelmersdale United's promotion last season.

However, his key role was perhaps unexpected as he started the season with only a place on the substitute bench for the opening game against Longridge Town.

He then quickly established himself in the team, finishing the season scoring 23 goals and he netted the crucial 85th minute second goal against Lower Breck that gave Skem the ticket to the play-off final that saw them seal promotion.

He arrived at the JMO Sports Park as a dual registered player also being on the books of Warrington Rylands and in the autumn was called back to Rylands.

Within two weeks he realised this wasn't what he wanted and immediately returned to Paul McNally's team where he was one of the main reasons Skelmersdale got promoted.

Morris was interviewed by the North West Counties League last week after he was announced as the award winner and made comments that were published by the league, including: "I'm delighted to have won Player of the Season for the North West Counties Premier Division.

"I'm playing with and against so many talented players so to pick up this award means an awful lot."

He continued with a tribute to what has gone at Skem this season, saying: "Obviously we have had a special season and gained promotion to the NPL which is huge for the club, and I personally feel it's back where it belongs.

"The squad Paul and the management team have assembled this season is a very special group.

"As I've said I'm over the moon personally but this for me is also a credit to the management, rest of the players, fans and everyone associated with Skelmersdale United!"

It is unusual for a young player to win an award like this. It normally goes to a more experienced type of player, that makes it an even greater achievement in many ways.

He is known to be under the watchful eye of bigger clubs and is a player with the potential to go higher in the game.

Lees and Shehzad take nine wickets to give Ormskirk comfortable win over Formby

ORMSKIRK enjoyed a comfortable seven wicket victory over Formby on Saturday.

Scott Lees claimed five wickets for 22 runs and Zahir Shehzad finished with 4-20 to dismiss Formby for 126 in 49.1 overs.

Formby opener Ollie Sutton scored 74 but the only other batter to make double figures was Jackson Darkes-Sutcliffe with 35.

Opener George Politis then scored an unbeaten 52 as Ormskirk cruised to victory in 33.5 overs

Southport & Birkdale were heavily beaten by Orrell Red Triangle, losing by 169 runs.

Orrell RT amassed a huge total of 280 -7 declared in 55 overs with Richard Everett anchoring the innings scoring 117 after both openers had fallen cheaply.

Sri Lankan spinner Dileepa Jayalath then scored an unbeaten 58 to help set an imposing total.

Jayalath then did the business with ball taking six wickets for 51 overs.

JJ Fielding scored 20 before he was out caught and bowled to Sam Heeley and no other batter made a substantial score.

Romario Brathwaite offered some late resistance with 32 before he was bowled by Jayalath as S&B were all out for 111 off 36.1 overs.

Elsewhere in the Liverpool Competition Premier Division Newton-le-Willows beat Northern by 8 wickets, Leight beat Wigan by 8 wickets, Wallasey beat Nrew Brighton by 14 runs and Birkenhead Park drew with Rainhill.

In the First Division Fleetwood Hesketh lost by 55 runs to Highfield and Ainsdale lost by six wickets to Lytham.

Slimmer's shed clothes to raise pounds for charity!

Generous slimmer's across Southport have raised £11,175 for charity by donating the clothes they've successfully slimmed out of and know they'll no longer need.

447 bags of clothes, shoes and accessories have been collected as part of the Big Slimming World Clothes Throw, all the Southport Slimming World groups have taken part.

The bags will be donated to Cancer Research UK shops in the area as part of the national fundraising drive being run by the weight-loss organisation.

Slimming World also aims to raise awareness of how keeping a healthy weight can reduce the risk of developing some types of cancer.

Each of the filled bags is worth around £25 to the charity, and this year's campaign is aiming to beat the total raised in 2019 – a whopping £3.2 million in just two weeks.

The Southport Consultants are delighted to have raised so much money for charity. Sheila Bolton says: "I can't quite believe how many bags we managed to collect – I knew our members were amazing but I didn't expect such an incredible level of effort – wow! It was almost like a purple sea of bags in group! Collecting them up to take to local Cancer Research UK shops was a real workout in itself but all so worth it. To raise such a phenomenal amount for a charity that does so much to beat cancer, feels amazing.

Fiona Foulger says "When my members lose weight I see more than just a physical transformation. Above all, I see their confidence bloom. Many go from nervous and shy new members who are very uncomfortable with the way they look, to confident, healthy and happy individuals with a new lease of life and a twinkle in their eye. They learn to remove feelings of guilt around food, and instead feel empowered by all the Free Food they can enjoy on Slimming World's healthy eating plan Food Optimising. Through Food Optimising, they learn not just to change the way they feel about themselves, but also to change the way they think about food by making small changes to the way they shop, cook and eat, and the weight soon falls off without them ever feeling like they are on a 'diet'. There is no diet, it's a lifestyle change!

"Members also make friends in group, they celebrate success together and they are there for one another through the more challenging times too. Many of them have so much energy thanks to losing weight they get more active – walking, swimming, dancing... the list goes on! I'm so proud of how our group come together. So many people don't know how much of a difference losing weight can make to health – including reducing the risk of developing cancer. Hopefully this campaign and our efforts for charity will help inspire more people in Southport to improve their health and change their lives by losing weight too."

Anyone who would like to find out more about Slimming World can check out the website for their local group information www.slimmingworld.co.uk

Where London leads, the north west will follow

THE FUTURE of motoring doesn't look good. I've seen it – and it's called London.

I know this because the other day, en-route to cover the Platinum Jubilee celebrations for Classic Car Weekly, I did something I almost never do, and ventured into the capital in one of my own cars. Or rather, I skirted around the edges of its innermost organs, trying not to fall foul of one of its many rules.

The reason why all of this is topical is because London mayor Sadiq Khan is currently consulting on whether to expand the city's Ultra Low Emissions Zone all the way out to Greater London's outer boundaries, and when London throws itself into the deep end it isn't long before towns and cities in other parts of the country dip their toes.

Of course, there will be plenty of you arguing that I probably shouldn't be venturing towards the clogged-up innards of Britain's biggest city in a 24-year-old Toyota anyway – and that's exactly the effect that the ULEZ had, as I cautiously skirted the North Circular, tootled over Kew Bridge and then into the stop-start stutter of its southern sibling en-route to my event, conscious that any misinterpreted direction would send me straight into a stringent world of emissions rules and a £12.50 a day charge. £12.50. In some parts of the capital, that's very nearly the cost of a pint.

But to be honest, the ULEZ charge didn't really bother me – although it did lead to the bizarre sight of a Tesla Model S charging happily into the zone, followed by a 1920s Bentley and an Austin Ten, the latter two being exempt from the charges because they're historic vehicles. What got me was... everything else outside the zone.

It was the double red lines flanking every single stretch of road for miles around. The flotilla of cameras monitoring every junction to make sure you didn't stop, and the endless signs insisting you didn't let your engine idle, on pain of a £40 fine, if you did. Chuck in a formula for traffic lights that seem to spend half a femtosecond on green and a fortnight on red, and you've got the perfect recipe for motoring hell. With the M25 neatly wrapping it up.

At the time of this week's Champion landing on your doorstep I haven't had any sternly-worded letters from Transport for London letting me know that I've broken one of its many, many rules, but the experience of creeping through the capital's streets – and this was the bits around Hammersmith, Kew and Richmond, so not even the really congested centre – wasn't even remotely enjoyable. It took over an hour to do 18 miles.

Don't get me wrong. I'm a huge fan of our nation's biggest city, but if you're thinking of going any time soon, go and get an advance train ticket and hop on at Wigan or Lime Street instead. Sadiq's just opened a shiny new train that speeds right through the capital, and it's going to be much, much faster than any car you're thinking of bringing along.

So yes, do as Sadiq says and go by public transport. Oh, and if you're a politician in the North West and you're reading this, get busy with investing in your trains and buses before you start thinking about following suit. London might be the future – but it has carrots as well as sticks.
